Socrates Ironist And Moral Philosopher Book PDF Download

Socrates and Plato have left many marks upon our culture, and the strongest one perhaps is the stature they gave to philosophy by contrasting it with other forms of thought and speech. In the Phaedrus, however, Plato does not feel the need to resist other forms of culture but rather is ready to assimilate them.

This slender volume is a gem. Vlastos is my favorite interpreter of Plato, and here he doesn't disappoint. The book is centered around Plato's cosmogony in the Timaeus, but it begins with the Pre-Socratics, and one of the main themes is the arise of scientific thinking (if not exactly the scientific method) in the ancient world.
